

ENGL102

Australian Literature: An introduction

Week 4

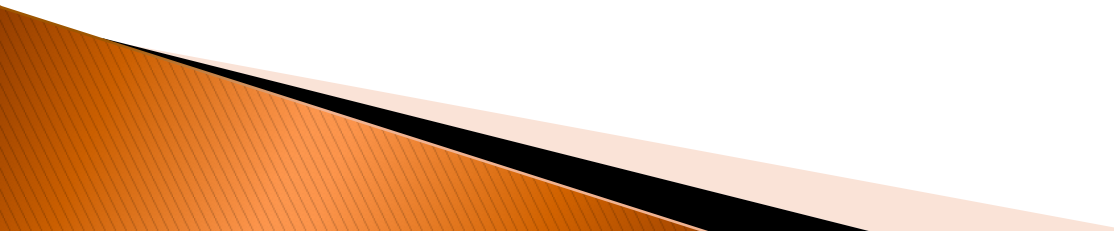

What are we doing today?

Question 3: period 1826–30

Read pp. 130–131 from “You people in England, they die?” to the end of the chapter....

- ▶ What do we know about Wunyeran?
 - ▶ What do we know about Dr Cross?
 - ▶ What does Kim Scott want the reader to understand by Wunyeran’s comment on Dr Cross’s beliefs, “You in the wrong port now, Doctor.”?
-

Question 4: Bobby Wabalanginy

Bobby Wabalanginy's name is explained as meaning "all of us playing together" (p. 39).

- ▶ What do we know about Bobby?
- ▶ How do you see this meaning, "all of us playing together", being played out in the drama of the novel?

Jack Tar

Question 6: Jak Tar

- ▶ What do we know about Jak Tar?
- ▶ How does Kim Scott, through his selection of events and language features, portray the role of Jak Tar in the novel? (pp. 259–261; period 1836–38).

Important dates

- ▶ Tuesday 21 August:
Art Gallery visit
- ▶ Sunday 26 August:
your first online blog is due
- ▶ 31 August census date
- ▶ 2 September: online
blog & peer review
- ▶ 9 September: essay
due

